 - It is necessary for a confidential alternative dispute resolution process.
- e. Greenwich College is unlikely to disclose personal information overseas except as may be necessary or appropriate to Greenwich College's business if a student or potential student is located outside of Australia will be dealing with a third-party agent contracted by Greenwich College to recruit students on its behalf and the services offered by that agent may be located outside of Australia.
- f. Greenwich College will disclose personal information overseas only if the individual consents or if Greenwich College reasonably believes that the personal information is protected overseas in a substantially similar way to its protection under the privacy laws and privacy principles that apply to Greenwich College in Australia, (and where the individual is domiciled in a European Union country is handled in accordance with European Union law).
- g. Greenwich College has processes in place to ensure that the records of personal information remain accurate, complete and up to date. Greenwich College has systems and procedures in place to protect personal information from misuse or loss, and from unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- h. If the personal information is no longer required by Greenwich College for any purpose for which it was collected or Greenwich College is no longer able to ensure that the personal information is accurate, complete or up to date and it is no longer required by law to be retained by Greenwich College, then Greenwich College will permanently destroy or de-identify the personal information.
- i. For students utilising either of the Commonwealth governments student loan schemes (FEE-HELP or VET Student Loan) information provided as part of the application process will upon submission automatically be copied to Services Australia.

3. Access and Correction of Information

- a. Greenwich College has measures in place to ensure that the personal information it holds is accurate, complete and up to date before acting on it. If an individual learns that personal information Greenwich College holds about the individual, such as address and contact details, is inaccurate, incomplete or not up to date the individual should contact Greenwich College so that the information can be promptly updated in order to maintain the accuracy and completeness of the individual's personal information and to ensure that any communications are correctly addressed. In the case that the student holds a student visa they are required to do so within 7 days of any changes to details in accordance with Australian visa requirements.
- b. If an individual wishes to see what information Greenwich College holds about the individual, the individual may contact Greenwich College and ask for a copy. Sometimes it may not be possible for Greenwich College to provide a copy of the information if it was provided anonymously, if it contains details about other people that the individual making the request is not authorised to access, or if it would be unsafe to provide the information because it may lead to harm being done against another person.
- c. If Greenwich College refuses to provide an individual with access to the individual's record or to update the record in the way the individual requests, Greenwich College will provide written reasons.

- d. If Greenwich College refuses to correct or update an individual's personal information, the individual may request that Greenwich College make a note on the record that the individual is of the opinion that the information is inaccurate, incomplete, out of date, irrelevant or misleading.
- e. Greenwich College will not charge the individual for lodging a request for a copy of the individual's personal information but may ask the individual to pay a reasonable fee for the work involved in providing the information and for any associated costs such as printing. The individual will be notified of any likely costs before the request is processed.

4. Privacy Complaints

- a. If an individual has a privacy complaint or concern, specially of the individual thinks that the individual's privacy has been affected or the individual wishes to complain about Greenwich College's refusal to update or grant the individual access to their personal information, the individual should contact Greenwich College's privacy officer who will examine the complaint.
- b. If the individual is dissatisfied with how Greenwich College's privacy officer deals with the complaint, the individual can subsequently complain about the privacy matter to the Australian Information Commissioner. See www.aic.gov.au for further information about how to make a complaint.

5. Reporting Breaches

- a. Any breach of this policy or of data protection laws must be reported as soon as practically possible. This means that as soon as you have become aware of a breach it is important to notify us.
- b. All members of staff have an obligation to report actual or potential data protection compliance failures. This allows Greenwich College to:
 - i) Investigate the failure and take remedial steps as required;
 - ii) Maintain a register of compliance failures; and
 - iii) Notify the Office of the Australian Information Commissioner of any compliance failures that are material either in their own right or as part of a pattern of failures within 30 days.
- c. Any member of staff who fails to notify us of a breach or is found to have known or suspected a breach has occurred but has not followed the correct reporting procedures will be liable to disciplinary action.

6. Audits, Monitoring and Training

- a. Regular data audits are scheduled to maintain data integrity, and both manage and mitigate risks. The outcomes will be recorded in the data register. This register contains information on what data is held, where it is stored, how it is used, who is responsible and any further regulations or retention timescales that may be relevant.
- b. The Data Protection officer (DPO) has overall responsibility for this policy. Greenwich College will keep this policy under review and amend or change as required from time to time.

7. Privacy Notice - EU and Brazil Citizens Only

- a. When collecting the personal information of European Union citizens this data will be protected, retained, and managed in accordance with the requirements of the General Data Protection Requirements as well as the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Privacy Amendment (Notifiable Data Breaches) Act 2017 (Cth) requirements.
